

Department of History
Pre-Industrial Credit Application

This application is for history majors who seek pre-industrial credit to fulfill the major. The student must focus their work on the pre-industrial section of the course. American and European pre-industrial period ends in 1850, and Africa, Asia, Latin American and Middle East pre-industrial period ends 1900. The credit for the course will be determined by the course syllabus, the final and/or mid-term paper's topic and content. You must attach the course syllabus, a copy of the mid-term and/or final paper for this application to be processed.

What pre-industrial credit are you seeking? _____

Pre-industrial period ends 1850

American

European

Pre-industrial period ends 1900

Latin American

Asian

Africa

Middle East

What is your field of focus in History:

Global Track

Specialization Track

Student's Name

Last: _____ First: _____

Email Address _____

Residential College _____

History Course Number: _____ Semester Taken: _____ Year of Graduation: _____

Title of Course: _____

Instructor's Name: _____

DUS Signature:

Date:

Only the DUS of History can approve this application.