Senior Essay Titles 2012

- Gunboat Diplomacy: America and the South Asian Crisis of 1971
- Sexuality and Education at Yale University in the Era of the Sexual Revolution: The education of Sex
- The Walter Camp that Nobody Knows: The Father of American Football in a Different Light
- The Bombing of London during the First World War: A Study in Liberal Govermentality
- Contextualizing Aristotle's Biology: The Attitude towards Women in Aristotle's Biological Works
- The Yale Institute of International Studies 1935-1951: How the University Shaped the Post-War Political Order
- The Vietnam War's Operation Baby lift, the Media, and Custody Cases: How the Rescue of 2000 Orphans Established the Multiracial American Family
- The Politics and Culture of Fear in the United States Presidential Election of 1964
- Frontier Surveying in Eighteenth-Century Colonial Virginia and the Creation of American Space
- Student Theatre at Yale, 1755-18--: "Turn[ing] College into Drury Lane"
- Health Seeker to Pleasure Seeker: How Miami Architecture and AdvertisingReflected Changing American Values during the 20s and 30s, and Their Effect on American Leisure
- Antonin Raymond: Biography of a Journey
- Defining American: The Process of framing the Fourteenth Amendment and Re-Framing American Citizenship
- Profits and Patriotism: Roosevelt's Search for Balance in Building the American Air Forces
- Comparing the 2000s Las Vegas, Nevada and 1920s, South Florida Housing Booms: Bubbles in the Sand
- Drill Baby Drill: A Legal and Social History of the rule of Capture in 19th Century Pennsylvania
- France's Role in the Rwandan Genocide: An Analysis of Operation turquoise
- War of the Word: The Bounds of Speech and Censorship in France during the Algerian War, 1954-1962
- Missionaries of Ordered Liberty: Colonial Sponsorship in the Wake of the Spanish-American War, 1899-1904
- The POW Experience in North Vietnam's "Hanoi Hilton": Reflections from Colonel Frederick A. Crow Jr. and Other
- Scribal Recusant Literature in East Anglia during the Reign of Elizabeth I
- From Ladies to Queens: Transgender Identity and Representation in the American Transgender Press
• Alexander Cadogan, 1938-1939: Reason and Honor in the Prelude to the Second World War
• The Ghost on the Roof: Whittaker Chambers and American Public Opinion of Joseph Stalin at the End of WW II
• The Political Construction of Tear Gas in the Vietnam Era: Science and Military Advice in Congress Political Arena, 1952-1975
• A Second Chance: The Federal Reserve and Its quest to Avoid Another Great Depression
• Simin Daneshvar's Savushun; the Novel as a Window into Pre-Revolutionary Iran (1940-1970)
• Rockefeller and Rapprochement: Our Love of France and How it Shaped American Cultural Memory
• Walter, Amos, Henry, and the Boys: Yale’s Early Football Men and the Rise and Spread of an American Obsession
• The Economic Efficiency of American Antebellum Slavery
• African American Theology in the Past Half Century: Defined by Liberation, Self-Determination, for a Concrete Identity
• Bowell's Blessing: Gay Christians and the Search for legitimacy, 1980-1994
• Major Fran Joshua North, 1840-1885: Indian Ally, Indian Fighter
• "James and Margaret Goff: Rethinking the Experience of Protestant Missionaries in Latin American During the Cold War
• The Best Years of Their Lives: An Analysis of 1940s Films Featuring Disabled Characters and American Culture
• Narcotics Smuggling Between El Paso and Juarez during the late 19th and 20th Century
• Off to See Something Real: Four Women Observer-Participants in the Spanish Civil War
• Benedetta and the Italian Woman of Secondo Futurismo Asserting Feminism within Futurism
• Truth, Trials, Transition: The Meaning of Justice in Pot Dirty War Argentina
• Atlanta's New Left, 1968-1974
• The Prosecution of Women for Sexual Offenses in Early Modern England, 1580-1640
• The Girls of the Imamura Mission: How Their Childhood in American Changed Their Life in Japan
• Mussolini's Invasion of Ethiopia: Legalism, Gas, and Indifference
• The Origin of the Yale Institute of Human Relations 1929-36: The Serendipitous Account of a Depression-Era Experiment.
• Winston Churchill and the Language of Unity, 1940-1945
• Newfoundland Canada in the British Empire in the First World War and Beyond
• The Various Faces of Winnie Mandela: Exploring the Different Ways Ex-Wife of South Africa's Revered leader
• "Half a Million Happy People “Reflections of New York City's Puerto Rican Community in 1958-1980
• Yale's Religious Revival of 1802: Redefining the Relationship between Faith and liberal Ideology Among Students

• "Keepers of Song, Keepers of Tradition:" Race and the Social Reproduction of Mississippi Hill Country Blues

• Nation Building through Trade in Old Canton, 1783-1844: The Role of American Merchants

• Two Trains Running: Lloyd Richards and August Wilson at Yale

• Imagining and Consuming American Cold War Culture: The Saturday Evening Post and Mass Periodicals in the Late 1950s

• New Haven's Oak Street: The Transformation of an Urban Space in the Twentieth Century

• The Story That Keeps On Giving: The Titanic in the American and British Historical Memory, 1912-2012

• John Cabot, in Shanghai, 1948-1949: A Skeptical View of U.S. Policy, Business, Public Ideology during the Chinese Communist

• Britain's 19 Century Imperial Theme: The Orchid Maria

• Fields of Stones: Decorum, Dignity, and Memory on the Western Front

• The Dangers of Decolonization: The Expulsion of Asian Ugandans in 1972

• A Perennial Hegemony: Examining the 19th Century Ashanti-British Wars

• The Politicization of Ethnic Minorities in Genocide Cambodia: The Tale of the "Long -Nosed" Prisoners

• Inter Collegiate Sailing in the US: A History of the ICSA

• John Profumo and Teynbee Hall: The Meeting of Memory, Redemption and Social justice in East End London

• Church Leadership in New Haven's Dixwell Neighborhood during the "Savage Sixties"

• The 929 Female Excision Controversies and the Politicization of Kikuyu Women

• The Early Effects of the Panama Canal Upon Panamanian Society: A Marginalized Middle Class

• The Zar Ceremony in Egypt, 1865-1940: Competing Visions of the Role of Religion and the Necessity of

• The War of Transformation: The Impact of the American Civil War on the Perception of African Americans 1861-1864

• The Transformation of Capital Punishment in the United states Since 1972

• The Anderson Normal School for Gymnastics: Empowering Women in New Haven at the Turn fo the 20th Century

• The Philosophy of Jiddu Krishnamurti and his Impact on Ojai, California 1930-1986: The Creation of an Alternative Community

• London, Berlin and the Concert of Europe on the road to WW I 1908-1914

• Great Britain Air Powers in Warfare in the Years Leading up to the Battle of Britain
Performing Patriotism: Charlotte Cushman and the Civil War Place 1863

Natural Disasters and the End of Antiquity: Earthquakes, Tsunamis, Plague, and Famine in the Roman Empire, CE 300-700

Sarah Tisdall and the Guardian: How a 23 Year Old British Civil Servant Affected Secrecy Under Margaret Thatcher

Constance Cook, a Trailblazer for Abortion Rights: the Story of the 1970 Nie Abortion Bill

Britain's Embrace of the First Opium War: The Limits of Moral Outrage

The Theology of Bishop Stephen Gardiner

Slave Marriage and the Master: Slave Relationships in Virginia from 1850-1865

Randall Burton, A Fugitive Slave Escape to Freedom on Martha's Vineyard with the help of Wampanoag Tribe

Islam in Tajikistan under Soviet Oppression: Resiliency of Identity and Practice among Rural Communities

Imaginary Lines: Territorial Competition and the Colonial Cartography of Brazil

The South Sea Bubble: A Critical Examination of Causes

Culture Wars: American's Lethal, Non-Military Invasion and Occupation of France's Soul

19th Century America, Transcontinental Railroad; Why the Magic City and not the Mile High City

The Cyprus Problem 1955-64: The Involvement of Ambassador John Sossidis

19th Century English Agricultural Labor Unions and the Collective Memory

Pope Gregory VII, The Investiture Controversy and the Restoration of traditional Catholicism: 1075-1087

Walter, Amos, Henry, and the Boys: Yale's Early Football Men and the Rise and Spread of an American Obsession

A Free Country in Bondage: Joseph Breen and American Film Censorship in the 1930s

The History of Population in Jamaica under Slavery 1686-1807

Warm Fronts, Cold War: Meteorology and Scientific Internationalism in United States Postwar Foreign Policy

An Intellectual and Cultural History of Idleness at Harvard in the Late 19th and 20th Centuries: Dolce Far Niente

Kennedy-Khrushchev Relations at the 1961 Vienna

Inventing Santa Fe: Architectural Innovation in the early 20th Century

The Re-Emergence of Catalan Nationalism during Francisco Franco's Dictatorship: The Resilience of a Language and Culture

Carthusian Honor Codes in the First World War

The Megarian Decree of 432 B.C. and trade in the Athenian Empire
• Ms. Magazine, Riot Grrr! and Feminist Public Discourses of Sexual Violence in the 1990s United States
• The Freedom House Coalition and Boston Busing, 1974-1976: An Uneasy Marriage Tried By Fire
• A Constant Observer: Assistant Press Secretary Eben Ayers and the Truman Administration
• Thomas Durant and the Union Pacific: "The First Dictator of the Railroad World"
• Men at War: The British Airmen's Experience of First World War
• John Trumbull and the Yale University Art Gallery: Painter as Historian